MR GEORGE ARMSTRONG WALKER,
30: HAWTHORN ROAD
BUSBY RENFREWSHIRE.

DEAR MR WALKER.

I was reading in today's "SUNDAY POST", how you were the first man who wrote to LANCASHIRE TOWN COUNCIL IN 1969 suggesting that they invite NEIL ARMSTRONG to the home of the ARMSTRONG CLAN, it was very kind of the council to invite you and your wife to the service in the OLD PARISH CHURCH, for a long time now MR WALKER I have been collecting "autographs" of various "astronauts" so I thought that I would take the chance and write to you MR WALKER, to see if you could oblige me and obtain NEIL ARMSTRONG autograph for me, which I would (appreciate) very much for my collection. Therefore I enclose a card for his autograph, with a. S.A.E. for a reply, trusting to luck MR WALKER that you will kindly oblige.

I am

Yours faithfully
Douglas Johnstone
